3 Housing Developments Pondered

Antioch's village officials began a new year Monday, faced with decisions on three housing projects that could have considerable impact on the village's size and population.

South of the village is the Antioch Country Club development. Owner Thomas F. Santino is planning a $30-million dollar development that could produce 1,487 housing units in the next five to seven years and add perhaps 4,500 residents to the community.

Santino is interested in being annexed to the village, and several village officials feel Antioch could do a better job of controlling the development than could Lake County or Lake Villa.

Mayor Robert Wilton's six-member annexation committee, including trustees Mike Haley, Bill Seemann, Irv Walsh, Don Amundsen, Bruce Jablonski and Forrest Stahmer, were scheduled to meet last night as consideration of the Santino development continued.

WEST OF THE village is the CABL development. Trustee Ron Cunningham announced

Monday night that a public hearing on CABL will be held at the village hall at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 3.

That proposed annexation would take in about 150 acres west of Tiffany Rd. and south of North Ave. Seeking the annexation are Dr. Edward Abderhalden, Dr. John Lorang, Albert Bucar, an optometrist; Robert and Theodore Costoff and Clarence Spiering.

A public hearing is necessary because the petitioners want the property rezoned. The village planning commission has recommended approval of the annexation and rezoning.

Eventually, the development could add between 2,000 and 3,000 residents to the village.

THE THIRD development being considered as a plan to build 100 houses in Antioch for senior citizens.

Trustee Mike Haley said his public relations committee will meet Sunday, May 18, at 1 p.m. with Jack Hilton of Glencoe, who is suggesting the development for elderly persons with incomes of $7,500 a year or less.

Fatal Crash In Lake Villa.

An 18-year-old Round Lake Beach youth was killed Saturday in a head-on collision on Rt. 83 in Lake Villa.

Barry Lindgren was dead on arrival at St. Therese hospital in Waukegan.

Police said he apparently lost control of his car and ran into an auto driven by a 21-year-old Round Lake woman, Gail Peleska, who was taken to St. Therese in satisfactory condition.

Lindgren was driving south on Rt. 83, a mile north of Grand Ave., when his car apparently swerved into the path of the other vehicle. It was raining and the road was wet when the collision occurred just before noon on Saturday. Lindgren died of internal injuries.

Leonard W. Schuett, 21, of Rt. 2, Box 136, Deep Lake Rd., Antioch, was hurt Sunday when his car struck a telephone pole on Rt. 60 near Volo.

Police Catch Tire Slasher

Antioch police last Friday arrested a 17-year-old Lake Villa youth for puncturing two tires with an ice pick in the Antioch High School parking lot.

A witness told police he saw the subject, with long blond hair and sideburns, jam the ice pick into the tires of another car and then drive away. Police apprehended the subject, who agreed to pay for the damage.

The owner of the car didn't press charges.

CLC Students Plan Library For Lake Villa

Seven architectural students at the College of Lake County have designed a library for the Lake Villa Library District as a class project.

The district is considering construction of a new library to serve its expanding community. Property has been donated for the proposed building near the intersection of Deep Lake Rd.

and Grand Ave. just east of Lake Villa.

A 22,000 square foot structure has been designed for a site overlooking a proposed lake, golf course and community recreation building.

The completed plans will be presented to a panel of college and community representatives and engineering and architectural experts.

The presentation is scheduled for Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Board Room of the College's new facilities. The public is invited to attend. The students include Ron Zaylik of Antioch.

EVERYBODY ELSE CUTS IN AHEAD

BUDGET SHIFTS UNWISE

Defense priority vital

Budget committees of the House and Senate are proposing cuts of as much as $5 billion in the $95 billion defense budget submitted by President Ford for 1975-76. Moreover, both the House and Senate versions of the proposed budget still carry deficits exceeding the $60 billion which the President hopes to maintain as a ceiling. Clearly, there may be even greater pressure on defense spending before the 1975 battle of the budget is over.

Congress is following a familiar scenario: if there is a squeeze on funding for social programs, look for "fat" in the defense budget to make up the difference. It is this approach to budgeting in recent years that has been eating into the strength of our armed forces as inflation pushed up the cost of military hardware and the all-volunteer program sharply increased the cost of manpower. The result is that the Soviet Union, which has been beefing up its military power steadily, is approaching a cross-over point which would leave the United States of America confronted for the first time since World War II by a potential enemy with military superiority.

These are staggering implications in the possibility that the Russians could confront the world with an acknowledged superiority in military power. Detente would become a meaningless exercise under such conditions. U.S. leadership in the free world — especially among nations that consider themselves "non-committed" to East or West — would lose any claim to confidence.

The credibility of the United States as a world power has been seriously shaken by our performance as an ally of Cambodia and South Vietnam. We are trying to assure all those nations which respect our power — including both our potential enemies and our allies who rely on us for their security — that our backing away from a Communist challenge in Southeast Asia is not a portent of the future.

Some historians believe the most significant event of the 1960s was that the United States declined to use its obvious military superiority to turn back a threat to the independent nations of Indochina. It would be disastrous if that is followed in the 1970s by a conscious decision of the United States to forfeit its military superiority to the Soviet Union.

BARRY GOLDWATER

Powerful Lobbying By Big Unions

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

"Special interests" are groups that big trade unions in this country used to battle tooth and nail. Ironically, today the unions themselves qualify as one of the most powerful "special interests" ever to lobby on Capitol Hill.

In the old days the phrase generally meant such groups as the oil interests, the steel combine, the milk lobby or some other facet of the business community.

But now it refers to those best able to pay campaign contributions and defray the cost of work at the polls during election campaigns.

A LOOK AT the records in the Office of the Clerk of the House for the 1974 election will show that trade unions kicked in a total of $429,632 for the campaigns of Democrat members of the Committee on Education and Labor in the U.S. House of Representatives.

This outlay by the unions was no mistake. It came right at the time when a battle was building up over whether public employees in states, counties and municipalities can be forced to join a union as a condition of their employment.

The figures on this item are astounding. There are 14.2 million public employees in the country and more than 4 million of them are union members.

Legislation forcing teachers, firemen, policemen and so on to pay up or lose their jobs would add — at conservatively estimated annual dues of $60 — more than half-a-billion dollars to the treasuries of big labor. So what it amounts to is the trade unions putting out a half-a-million dollars in the 1974 election to reap a profit of half-a-billion dollars a year. Needless to say, the House Committee on Education and Labor handles legislation of this nature.

CAN THE members of such a committee sit objectively in judgement on legislation which would grant additional powers and privileges to the people who gave them money for their elections? Maybe they could. I like to think so. But I'm not so naive to believe the unions were putting out that kind of money just to create goodwill.

Even the New York Times, a newspaper not noted for criticizing unions, said editorially, "Whether or not the law condones it, here is a real conflict of interests."

I agree. The only mystery is why we have not heard more about it. Especially since the media is so steamed up about this kind of abusive power.

Missing Something From Your Car? Police May Have It

Antioch police have cracked a juvenile theft ring that was stealing hood ornaments, trunk latches and other emblems from automobiles.

Chief Jack Wells and Sgt. Charles Miller now have a box full of the ornaments and manufacturer's emblems, which probably are missing from some residents' cars.

"If they come to the police station and claim them, we'll be glad to return them," Miller said. "After all, they're worth money if you want to replace them."

The independent newspaper dedicated to the thoughts and feelings of the people of Antioch.

SENATOR STEVENSON AND WORKS OF ART

The Town Crier

Okay, we've kept the above photograph hidden long enough. It's time we shared it with you. Remember when Sen. Adlai Stevenson visited Antioch last November to campaign for county Democrats?

One of the photographers took pictures of him speaking at Lorenz's Smart Country House and was so busy focusing on the senator that he didn't realize until printing the pictures in the darkroom that (Holy Birthday Suit, Batman!) Adlai was in interesting surroundings.

As you know, Lorenz's cocktail lounge and restaurant is also a gallery of original and beautiful paintings. (Only an occasional nude.)

The one on the left has been sold, folks, so don't rush over for a close-up. (But there are many other works of art that add to the pleasure of dining at Lorenz's.)

I guess the moral of the photograph is, "When you notice a photographer coming at you, look around and see where you're standing."

OUR EXPERT on horses and women recalls that it has been three years since actor George Sanders committed suicide in Spain at the age of 65.

He took an overdose of sleeping pills and left a brief note that personified his many movie roles as a suave and cynical cad.

"Dear World," he wrote. "I am leaving because I am bored. I feel I have lived long enough. I am leaving you with your worries in this sweet cesspool - good luck."

We wonder how today's women libbers would have liked Sanders. He loved to enrage club-women with the remark:

"Women are, strange little beasts. I agree that that old verse: 'A woman, a dog and a walnut tree - the more you beat them the better they be.'"

WE SAW one of our favorite bumper stickers in the Antioch Bowl parking lot Monday evening:

"If you don't like Police, next time you need help call a hippie." There's another one that says: "Bumper stickers are stupid." But they aren't really. They're a lot of fun.

How about the one that says: "Honk if you love Jesus." And then it's passed by a car with a sticker that says: "Honk twice if you ARE Jesus."

Hear ye!

4-Day Celebration At Teresi's Showroom

A four-day celebration is being planned Thursday through Sunday at John Teresi Chevrolet-Oldsmobile, on Rt. 173, two blocks east of Hy. 83.

For one thing, John Teresi and Ray Scarpelli have a mechanical robot named "Geemo" in their showroom. They are inviting Antioch folks to bring their children and let them talk to "Geemo."

The showroom is open Thursday, Friday and Saturday until 9 p.m. and Sunday till 5 p.m.

For another thing, Teresi's firm will be holding a wine and cheese tasting festival during those four days.

And the celebration also will center around the unveiling of the new Chevrolet Monza Towne Coupe, a 4-cylinder economy car with bucket seats - an exciting addition to Chevy's Monza family.

"Everybody is welcome," said Teresi and Scarpelli.

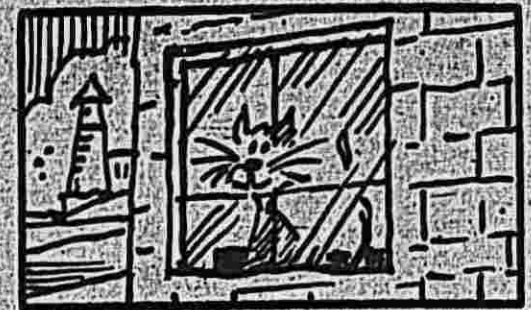

Softball League Bake Sale

The Antioch Girls Softball league will hold a bake sale Saturday at the State Bank of Antioch. Proceeds will be used to provide equipment for the 10 teams that will compete in the girls' league this summer.

Opening day is scheduled Sunday, June 1, at 1 p.m. at the Little League field.

THE OLD FARMER'S ALMANAC

MAY 12-18, 1975

Don't be nettled if it's unsettled.

After breakfast work a while; after supper walk a mile... Apple trees now in bloom... First quarter of the moon May 18... Good luck coming if these nights are lighted by fireflies... Better spare at the brim than at the bottom.

Ask the Old Farmer: Can you interpret an old saying of my father's from the old United States Navy (sailing ship era), namely: "It fits like a purser's shirt on a handspike?"

Yup. It means very, very loose.

Home Hint: Put your recipes on 8 x 5 cards. Then, when following one, put the card between the tines of a fork and place the fork in a drinking glass. The card will be held at just the right angle for reading.

Looks like Spring is really hear, rain and all. Sure is nice, however, to be outside in short sleeves again.

The High School Drama Club did a splendid job on their production of "Oklahoma" this weekend. The music was great and all of the cast did a marvelous job. Hard to believe they're just high school kids. Of course, their director, Ken Smouse, had something to do with it too. Everyone is talking about what a great show it was.

The Antioch Mental Health Association sponsored their annual Cotillion this past Saturday evening at the Abbey in Fontana. Talked to several people who attended and they tell me it was a marvelous evening. Lots of good food and dancing till 2 a.m. for the sell-out crowd. Special thanks to Barb Dunham, ticket chairman, who did a marvelous job. Also, to Dee Lewis, Pat Lorenz and Kay Costoff for all their hard work. Guest speaker for the evening was Virginia Matson of the Grove School.

So far the Mental Health Association has contributed over $60,000 to Grove School. The proceeds from this year's Cotillion will be divided among Grove School and The Lambs Farm in Libertyville. As one member put it ... "It's really a great organization and when you see how the money helps all these youngsters, it's worth all the efforts put forth. Also, it makes us all see how fortunate we are."

Congrats to Irene Hahn and Virginia Murphy, newly elected president and vice-president of the Antioch Woman's Club. The ladies held their annual spring luncheon and installation of officers last Monday at the Cabriolet in Libertyville. Remaining in office were secretary, Elaine Palm; corresponding secretary, Joan Benes and treasurer Jean Rockow. All of the ladies went home with a lovely bud vase filled with fresh daisies and box of note paper. Outgoing president Fern Watson was presented with a past president's pin for her services for the past two years.

crowning of the Blessed Mother at St. Peter's last Friday evening was a touching and beautiful event. The eighth graders selected their classmate Jeannie Venn to perform the crowning at the Mass.

Congrats also to Mary Beth Dvorak of Lake Villa who was named Queen of the Prom at Carmel High School in Mundelein last weekend.

Speaking of the Carmel Prom ... Judy Zabucabec, Louis Guido, Liz Daisy and Bob Mers traveled in style in a chauffeured driven Rolls Royce for their big evening at the Ramada Inn in Highland Park. Imagine the excitement when they pulled up to the door ...

Keep your dancing shoes on - the Firemen are planning their annual June dance for June 28 at the fire station. Always lots of fun. Also, this year they will host the 43rd annual Lake County Fireman's Convention.

The first event will begin at 9 a.m., May 31, in the Village parking lot on Broadway Ave. Water fights, three and five man hookups, etc. will be demonstrated.

Get well wishes to Ron Vos, Jackie Vos, Zelma Bechtol and Frank Benes, Sr., who are patients at Victory Memorial Hospital. Also, to Alice Bessette who is recuperating from an automobile accident in the Kenosha hospital. Glad to hear Marge Poulos is home recovering nicely from surgery.

Some interesting observations ... Lee-Ron Enterprises has opened up where the Chain O'Lakes Dental Lab used to be; hear a delicatessen may sprout where the Dessert Shop lived; a new ice cream parlor in the old Bits 'N Pieces store and a Schwinn Bicycle Shop in the old Georgetown Furniture building. We're glad to see these stores filling up ... what have you heard?

Special birthday wishes to a lovely lady, Lucille Pfarr, who celebrates this Sunday, May 11. Hear tell her sons and daughters-in-law and 15 grandchildren will be flocking to her house on Mother's Day. Birthday greetings to Paul Dugenske on the 7th, to Jim Harvey on the 8th, to Pat Lorenz, Sue Haley, Ed Jahneke, Jr., and Virginia Howard on the 10th, and to Chuck Jenkins, Jr. and Jack Harrison on the 11th. Anniversary wishes to Marilyn and Al Roth on the 10th and to Mary and Bill Carney on the 13th.

Sorry, I goofed Louise, and after Julie told me too!

Things coming up ... St. Peter's Fun Fair this Saturday benefiting the 8th grade class, from 11:30 to 1 p.m. in the gym. Also, Saturday the Girls Basketball Team from the high school will hold a car wash at the Orchard Texaco station from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The bicycle rodeo has been rescheduled for Saturday at the Grade School parking lot on Depot St.

Remind the kids about the model rocket competition sponsored by the Aerospace Club to be held on Saturday, May 17, at 1:30 p.m. at the Upper Grade School.

Happy Mother's Day,

Palate-Pleasing Travel Tips

There's a lot of fun in travel, and a good deal of it's in the eating.

In enlightened eating, as in anything else, there are certain things the average American abroad should bear in mind if he wants to come home healthy and happy.

1. Experiment. Travel is the ideal time to try exotic and interesting foods.

2. Ask. If you don't understand what's on the menu, don't play the big shot. Call the waiter over to tell you what it means in English, or you may be in for some unpleasant surprises.

3. Be patient. You can't expect to come into a really good restaurant and have your food dished up at once, quick lunch style.

4. Sample. Don't hesitate to ask the waiter the specialty of the house. Most restaurants have one — a simple dish designed to tickle your taste buds and leave happy memories you'll never be able to get anywhere else quite the same way.

5. Don't despair if you get a craving for good old American food. There are 1,700 Holiday Inns around the world that serve not only fine food in the native manner but also offer American style meals and American standards of comfort.

Fortified with these hints for increasing your dining pleasure, your own good common sense and sense of taste, you should be well equipped to make the most of the dining delights the world has to offer footloose Americans.

Bon Appetit!

'Church on the Hill' Celebrates 10th Anniversary

A "Memory Banquet" Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at Antioch High School will be the scene of festive recollections of the early days of St. Stephen Lutheran Church, organized 10 years ago this month in that very building.

The Reverend Wilton H. Anderson, the organizing Pastor, will be the featured guest together with his wife, Carolyn, for the congregation now located high atop the hill at the junction of Hillside Ave. and Rt. 59, Antioch.

The next day, Sunday, at 9:30 a.m., Pastor Anderson will deliver the sermon at the Festival Service. Following the Service a reception will be held in the church parlors. Everyone is welcome to join in the celebration, Pastor Philip O. Laurin said.

"YOUTH OF THE YEAR" at Antioch High School, Mary Mayer (center), is congratulated by Edward Kurek (left), director of curriculum and guidance, and Superintendent Warren Polley. Mary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Mayer, was selected by the Exchange Club of Grayslake on the basis of her academic and community achievements. She won over students from Grayslake, Round Lake and Warren high schools. She is now eligible for competition which leads to statewide recognition. Mary will be honored Thursday, June 5, at a dinner at Brae Loch Country Club. The public is invited to the steak dinner at $5.50 a person. Mr. Kurek is taking reservations at the high school, 395-1421.

Keep dream alive

By REV. W. LEE TRUMAN

The debt that I owe to Wallis Hamilton is that he gave me the word "serendipity." It means to find something of value, unexpectedly.

My serendipity is that I found a small, one-man gold-plating shop where I had some work done. As I was ready to leave I saw a contraption in the back and asked about it. The proprietor shrugged his shoulders and said he was building an airplane.

Not every day have I found someone building his own airplane, so I asked a few more questions. When he saw I was serious, he shared his creation with me like a child showing off his most prized possession.

It was not a true airplane, but an autogyro which has no wings and is no larger than a Please turn to page 20

ANTIOCH'S STAR HIGH HURDLER this track season has been Bob Walsh (left) who finished first Thursday in the dual meet here against Wauconda. Antioch won 95-46.

MIKE JONES of Antioch breaks the tape in the 100 yard dash against Wauconda. Jones has posted some of the fastest times in Lake County this season in the 100 and 220, including 10 seconds flat in the 100. He also has been a winner in the long jump.

Antioch Sparkles On Track

The Antioch High School track and field team is earning the respect of its opponents this spring.

Like last Thursday, for instance, when the Sequoits trounced Wauconda 95-46 in a dual meet here.

And then Saturday when they finished sixth in the 17-team Lake County meet at Zion.

Antioch finished far ahead of any other Northwestern Suburban Conference team, scoring 35 points.

Zion won with 104 points, followed by Waukegan, North Chicago, Deerfield and Highland Park.

Antioch outscored Lake Forest, Libertyville, Barrington and the other eight teams in the big meet.

ANTIOCH'S INDIVIDUAL winner in the Lake County meet was Mike Jones, who sprinted the 100 yards in 10.2 seconds. He also placed second in the 220.

Mike Ware, an Antioch junior, leaped 41 feet 9 inches in the triple jump to place second in his event. His only conqueror, Zion's Bruce Burroughs, set a meet record of 41-10.

Antioch's 880-yard relay team also placed second, losing only to Waukegan's fast foursome.

Jerry Michalek of Antioch cleared 5 feet 8 inches for fifth place in the high jump.

Antioch won 13 of 17 events against Wauconda. Jones took the 100, 220 and broad jump. Mike Harland won the two-mile in 9:56, Bob Walsh was first in the high hurdles, George Pierce ran the half-mile in 2:10, and Ron Gramer triumphed in the low hurdles.

Dale Eastman of Antioch won the shot put at 45 feet, L.E. Turdean threw the discus 122 feet, Bob Packart high jumped 5-10, Gary Polinski pole vaulted 10 feet and Ware won the triple jump at 40-2.

"Overall it was a good performance," said Coach Gerry Sandberg. With warmer weather arriving, the Sequoits hope to get even better.

Young Repeats At Waukegan

Ray Young won the Saturday night late model stock car feature at Waukegan Speedway in a 1974 Camaro. It was Young's second straight feature win at Waukegan and his 38th since 1969.

The father-and-son combination of Lee and Larry Schuler were impressive in the 30-lap main event as Larry edged his father for second spot after a battle.

Rick Kleich, who was involved in an accident midway in the race and had to restart in the rear, finished a strong fourth.

Racing continues next Saturday and Sunday night with the first race at 8 p.m. both nights.

LARRY SCHULER of Lockport snapped Ray Young's feature win streak at two Sunday night at Waukegan Speedway in the 30-lap main event.

Young finished second in the finals followed by Rick Kleich, George Dukas, Lee Schuler and Rich Sundling.

Ed Hoffman of Niles brought his new Camaro to the track Sunday night and promptly lowered the one-lap record to 13.78 seconds, however, a freak accident a few minutes later

Zion's ZeeBees took a 2-0 lead in the first inning and that was still the score until the fourth, when Antioch got tough.

JON BODIN slashed a single and stole second. Mike Witt hit into a fielder's choice and, with the aid of an error, Bodin was able to score and Witt wound up on second.

Then Frank Pleviak singled to put runners on first and third. The Sequoits pulled off a double steal and, eventually, both Witt and Pleviak scored, putting Antioch ahead 3-2.

The Sequoits made it 5-2 in the fifth inning when Terry Lear singled and a couple of Zion errors helped pile up the score.

Zion scored once in the fifth, but Antioch got two more runs in the sixth when Tom McAvoy clouted a double with two men on base.

WHEN YOUR POPULARITY LASTS for half a century you're doing pretty well. That's the case with Lynn (Rip) Watson, who was Antioch High School's first football coach from 1922 to 1928. He's shown above holding the football and surrounded by a group of his former players. More than 70 persons showed up last Thursday for Rip's return to Antioch. Wondra Wins Again At Wilmot Rich Wondra of Cambellsport, Wis., made it two in a row as he piloted his No. 92 through a field of 18 super modified racing machines to win the feature race Saturday night at Wilmot, Wis.

Taking the second spot for the second straight week was Gene Erdman of Hartland, Wis.

Erdman took the lead early and held on for 10 laps but Wondra skillfully maneuvered through traffic and then rode right on Erdman's tail, making his bid for the lead when Erdman began experiencing difficulty holding the car closer to the rail on the turns.

The sportsman feature race proved to be a crowd pleaser as brothers Duke and Sid Norton, visiting driver George Schefler, Don Collins, Randy Storm and Chuck Ostergaard fought it out in a 15-lap race which saw the lead change eight times.

The leading cars were mere feet apart as they crossed the finish for the checkered flag, with Duke Norton and Storm finishing one and two.

In the sportsman semi-feature was a runaway for Bill Kojis.

How to practice groundstrokes

By ED COLLINS

"Without a backhand tennis is a difficult game to master; without a forehand, it's impossible."

This ancient tennis proverb best summarizes the serious player's responsibility of developing his groundstrokes. The problem that many players share is in disciplining themselves to practice this part of their game.

In their anxiousness to win in competition, they often spend a disproportionate amount of time at the net. As a result, their groundstrokes suffer from lack of practice.

"Deep" is an advanced game that stresses depth in the ground game. It also is introduced with a groundstroke and utilizes the "three bounce rule." The objective is to keep the ball deep in the court. If the ball lands within the service line, a point is lost. The winner is the first player who reaches 21 points with a margin of two.

HEALTH'S-A-POPPIN'

You can cope with tension

By MARION WELLS

In today's pressure prone society, who has not identified at some time with the motto: "The hurrieder I go, the behinder I get!" However, when tensions trap us on a continual treadmill, it may take its toll on our health.

A certain amount of stress plays a normal, and even necessary part in life, but findings suggest enough of a stress overload can be a factor in such common ailments as ulcers, heart disease, high blood pressure, headaches, allergies and various mental and emotional problems.

How can what's on our mind affect what's the matter? Frank Finnerty Jr., M.D., of Georgetown University Medical School noted in his book "High Blood Pressure" that one study was done of several dozen men who were in danger of losing their jobs at a large company. The men's pressure remained elevated during the entire time they were worried about their jobs, when they lost them, when they were out of work, and during the beginning of new jobs. Once accustomed to the jobs and secure again, their blood pressures dropped back to normal.

The capacity to cope with stress varies with the individual, but we can all maximize our "coping capacity" by recognizing and reducing avoidable pressures before we reach the breaking point. This leaves us more reserves to deal with remaining problems.

Oakwood Knolls News

By JUDY PHILLIPS

A Solemn Communion Mass for 78 children of St. Peter's school and CCD classes was celebrated by Father Johnson and Father Melcher Sunday, Apr. 27 at St. Peter's Church.

The Mass was a beautiful, memorable experience for the children and their parents. During the Mass the children sang a song to their parents, and presented booklets they have worked on since Fall as part of the offertory.

The St. Peter's school children who participated in the Mass made a banner for the occasion and the CCD classes made stoles.

MARY JEDELE and Pat Czapiewski of Oakwood Knolls, CCD catechists, helped the children make the stoles and Pat Czapiewski gave the reading for the Mass.

According to Pat, the beautiful, joyful looks on the faces of the children when they presented their booklets and took Communion was an inspiring sight which she will cherish always.

The children participating in the Mass from Oakwood Knolls were Nancy Jucha, Mike and Larry Wegel, Kelly Williamson, Tony Grigonis, Margaret Purfeerst, Mike and Jeff Crump, Dean and Suzanne Frasch, Indus Gagnon, Edward Young and Douglas Johnson.

MANY OF the families hosted parties for family and friends following the Mass. A dinner party was given by Tom and Kathy Williamson for their daughter, Kelly. Attending were Kelly's great-grandmothers, Sophie O'Shaughnessy and Mrs. Lyman Williamson; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williamson and Hilery O'Shaughnessy; great aunt Jo O'Shaughnessy and great uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Sandrick; aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson and their family, and the Williamson's friend and neighbor Loretta Schiffmann.

ATTENTION Oakwood Knolls teenagers. There may be a few reservations left for the hayride Saturday. Everyone attending is to meet promptly at 5 p.m. at the Oakwood Drive entrance gate. The ride will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the Wagon Wheel Riding Stable in Lake Villa, followed by a wiener roast and dancing. The cost is 40 cents a person. Call Mrs. Bryn after 6 p.m. at 395-6811 for reservations.

Other winners from Oakwood Knolls included Sheri Weber, who won three free games of bowling, and Kim Heath, who won six free games of bowling for selling tickets for the dinner.

Birthday greetings to Kerry Kellogg on May 9, Bob Olson on May 10 and Kathy Stroschein on May 11.

Multi-Year Plates By 1978, Maybe

To determine the best methods for manufacture and sale of multi-year car license plates, a state task force will study the methods of other states that use them.

All but six of the 50 states now sell multi-year plates or have voted legislation to start using them.

Illinois will abide by the current law which provides that any motorist can keep his current license number for the coming year if he applies by Sept. 30 of the current year.

Tax payers' money could be saved by multi-year plates.

Illinois now uses a steel plate with reflective sheeting. By law, it must be six by 12 inches, must be covered by reflective material and must say "Land of Lincoln."

The Secretary of State's office said:

"We expect to need four to six months to find and nail down our facts and make our recommendations. Since 1976 plates already have been purchased, and specifications drawn for 1977 plates, the earliest a multi-year plate could be in effect would be 1978."

Tension

ing habit patterns can be changed. Here are some suggestions to consider:

1. Identify your sources of stress. A series of minor irritations can add up to major tension if they continue unrecognized — and thus unrelieved.

2. Can you handle a tensing task in a more relaxing way? One businessman discovered that telephone transactions were more stressful for him than interacting in person.

3. Try a step-by-step approach. Pressure and panic can make a job seem bigger than it is. Splitting the work into sections and finishing one task at a time may make the remainder look less overwhelming. Another approach is to "...take the problem and analyze it on paper: what the problem really is, what your real goal is, what alternative answers are possible, the advantages and disadvantages of each."

4. If you feel "stuck," what about "tabling it" temporarily? Selye states that "in stress research, we have found that, when completion of one particular task becomes impossible, diversion, a voluntary change of activity, is frequently as good as — if not better than — a rest." A brisk walk, a game, a movie or a short trip may refresh you for a renewed attack on the problem, and answers may seem to "come from nowhere" as your mind gets into a more relaxed state.

5. Confiding in a trusted friend, family member, physician or counselor may help get frustrations "out of your system."

"All those in favor of returning to Disney World for the 10th annual spring sales convention, say 'Super-califragilisticexpialidocious!'"

DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL

ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

Discount fare war rages on the domestic front, which makes all travel agencies go bananas trying to quote a fare to a client over the phone or even in person.

For example; National has a mid-week East Coast-Florida excursion fare at 25 percent off coach between Apr. 1 and Dec. 18. American has night coach excursion discounts up to 30 percent in markets over 1,000 through June 14.

All trunk lines now have the various new excursion fares for routes between 750 and 1,500 miles at an off-season discount of 25 percent and peak season discount of 20 percent.

Should you have group of four to nine persons traveling, Allegheny's discount of 20 percent will be applied.

Some of these fares are called bicentennial, excursion, Discover America; you name it. There is even a "no-frill" fare being worked on for approval which is about 35 percent discount.

One good thing which did come about on all these discounted fares is the possibility of youth and senior citizen fares. Be sure and check with your local travel agency.

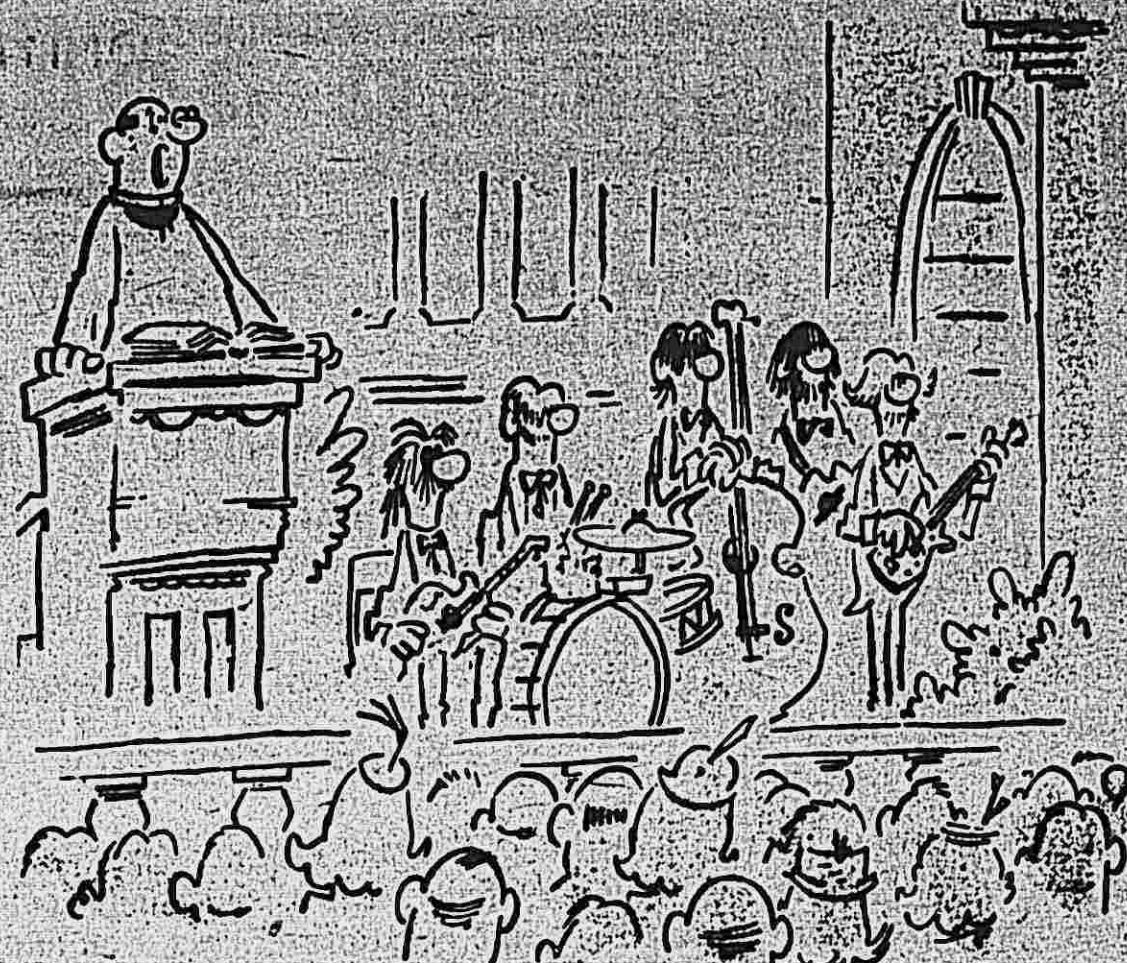

All of these special fares have various requirements such as seven-day advance reservations-purchase, at least three days, no longer than 30, etc. These special innovative programs I have mentioned are for domestic only. The special international fares will be effective this month.

Upon reading the above, if you are a bit confused, just call your local travel agency and tell where you want to go and when. Leave the rest up to him for he will be able to get you the best fare according to your needs. It might take a few questions and moments; but upon reading the above, I know you will bear with him. This explains why one can receive various price quotes to one destination.
